WELLNESS. THE NEW LUXURY BY KYLEMORE

We believe that discerning home buyers recognize that luxury is more than just a “what.” It is also a “where” and a “how”. It is an expectation that wellness be the focus of every aspect of the way their community is designed, and their home is made.

Wellness is an active process of becoming aware of and making choices toward a healthy and fulfilling life. It is a dynamic process of change and growth; a state of complete physical, mental, and social well-being.

Wellness is the truest form of luxury.

A woman and a young child are standing in a modern courtyard. The woman, wearing a white sleeveless dress, is holding the child's hand. The child is wearing a white dress with colorful patterns. They are standing on a path of white pebbles and stepping stones. To the left is a large tree with a white lattice wall behind it. The scene is bright and airy, with large windows on the right side of the frame.

Wellness is the new luxury that encompasses more than just the bricks and mortar of a new home. It is also dependent on the location of the community, its ambience, and equally important – the builder's intention. Kylemore creates neighbourhoods and builds homes that prioritize the well-being of the families who will live in them.

WELLNESS BY DESIGN.

Mindfully focusing on wellness in the homes and communities we shape.

Now, more than ever, enjoying overall well-being and good health is a focus for all of us. At Kylemore, our goal has always been to offer residents closely knit communities by providing a social framework, as well as better living in a luxury environment. Focusing on wellness enables us to expand on this legacy by ensuring we pay attention to many other aspects of lifestyle that can be enhanced by what we build, how we build and where we build.

BUILDING FOR WELLNESS.

Angus Glen South Village, our newest community in Markham, incorporates home designs that best meet the wellness needs of you and your family.

ARCHITECTURAL CONVERGENCE

The unparalleled features and location of Angus Glen South Village merit equally distinct architecture. The simplicity of farmhouse architectural styling provided the genesis for a new collection of homes augmented with highly tailored modern details.

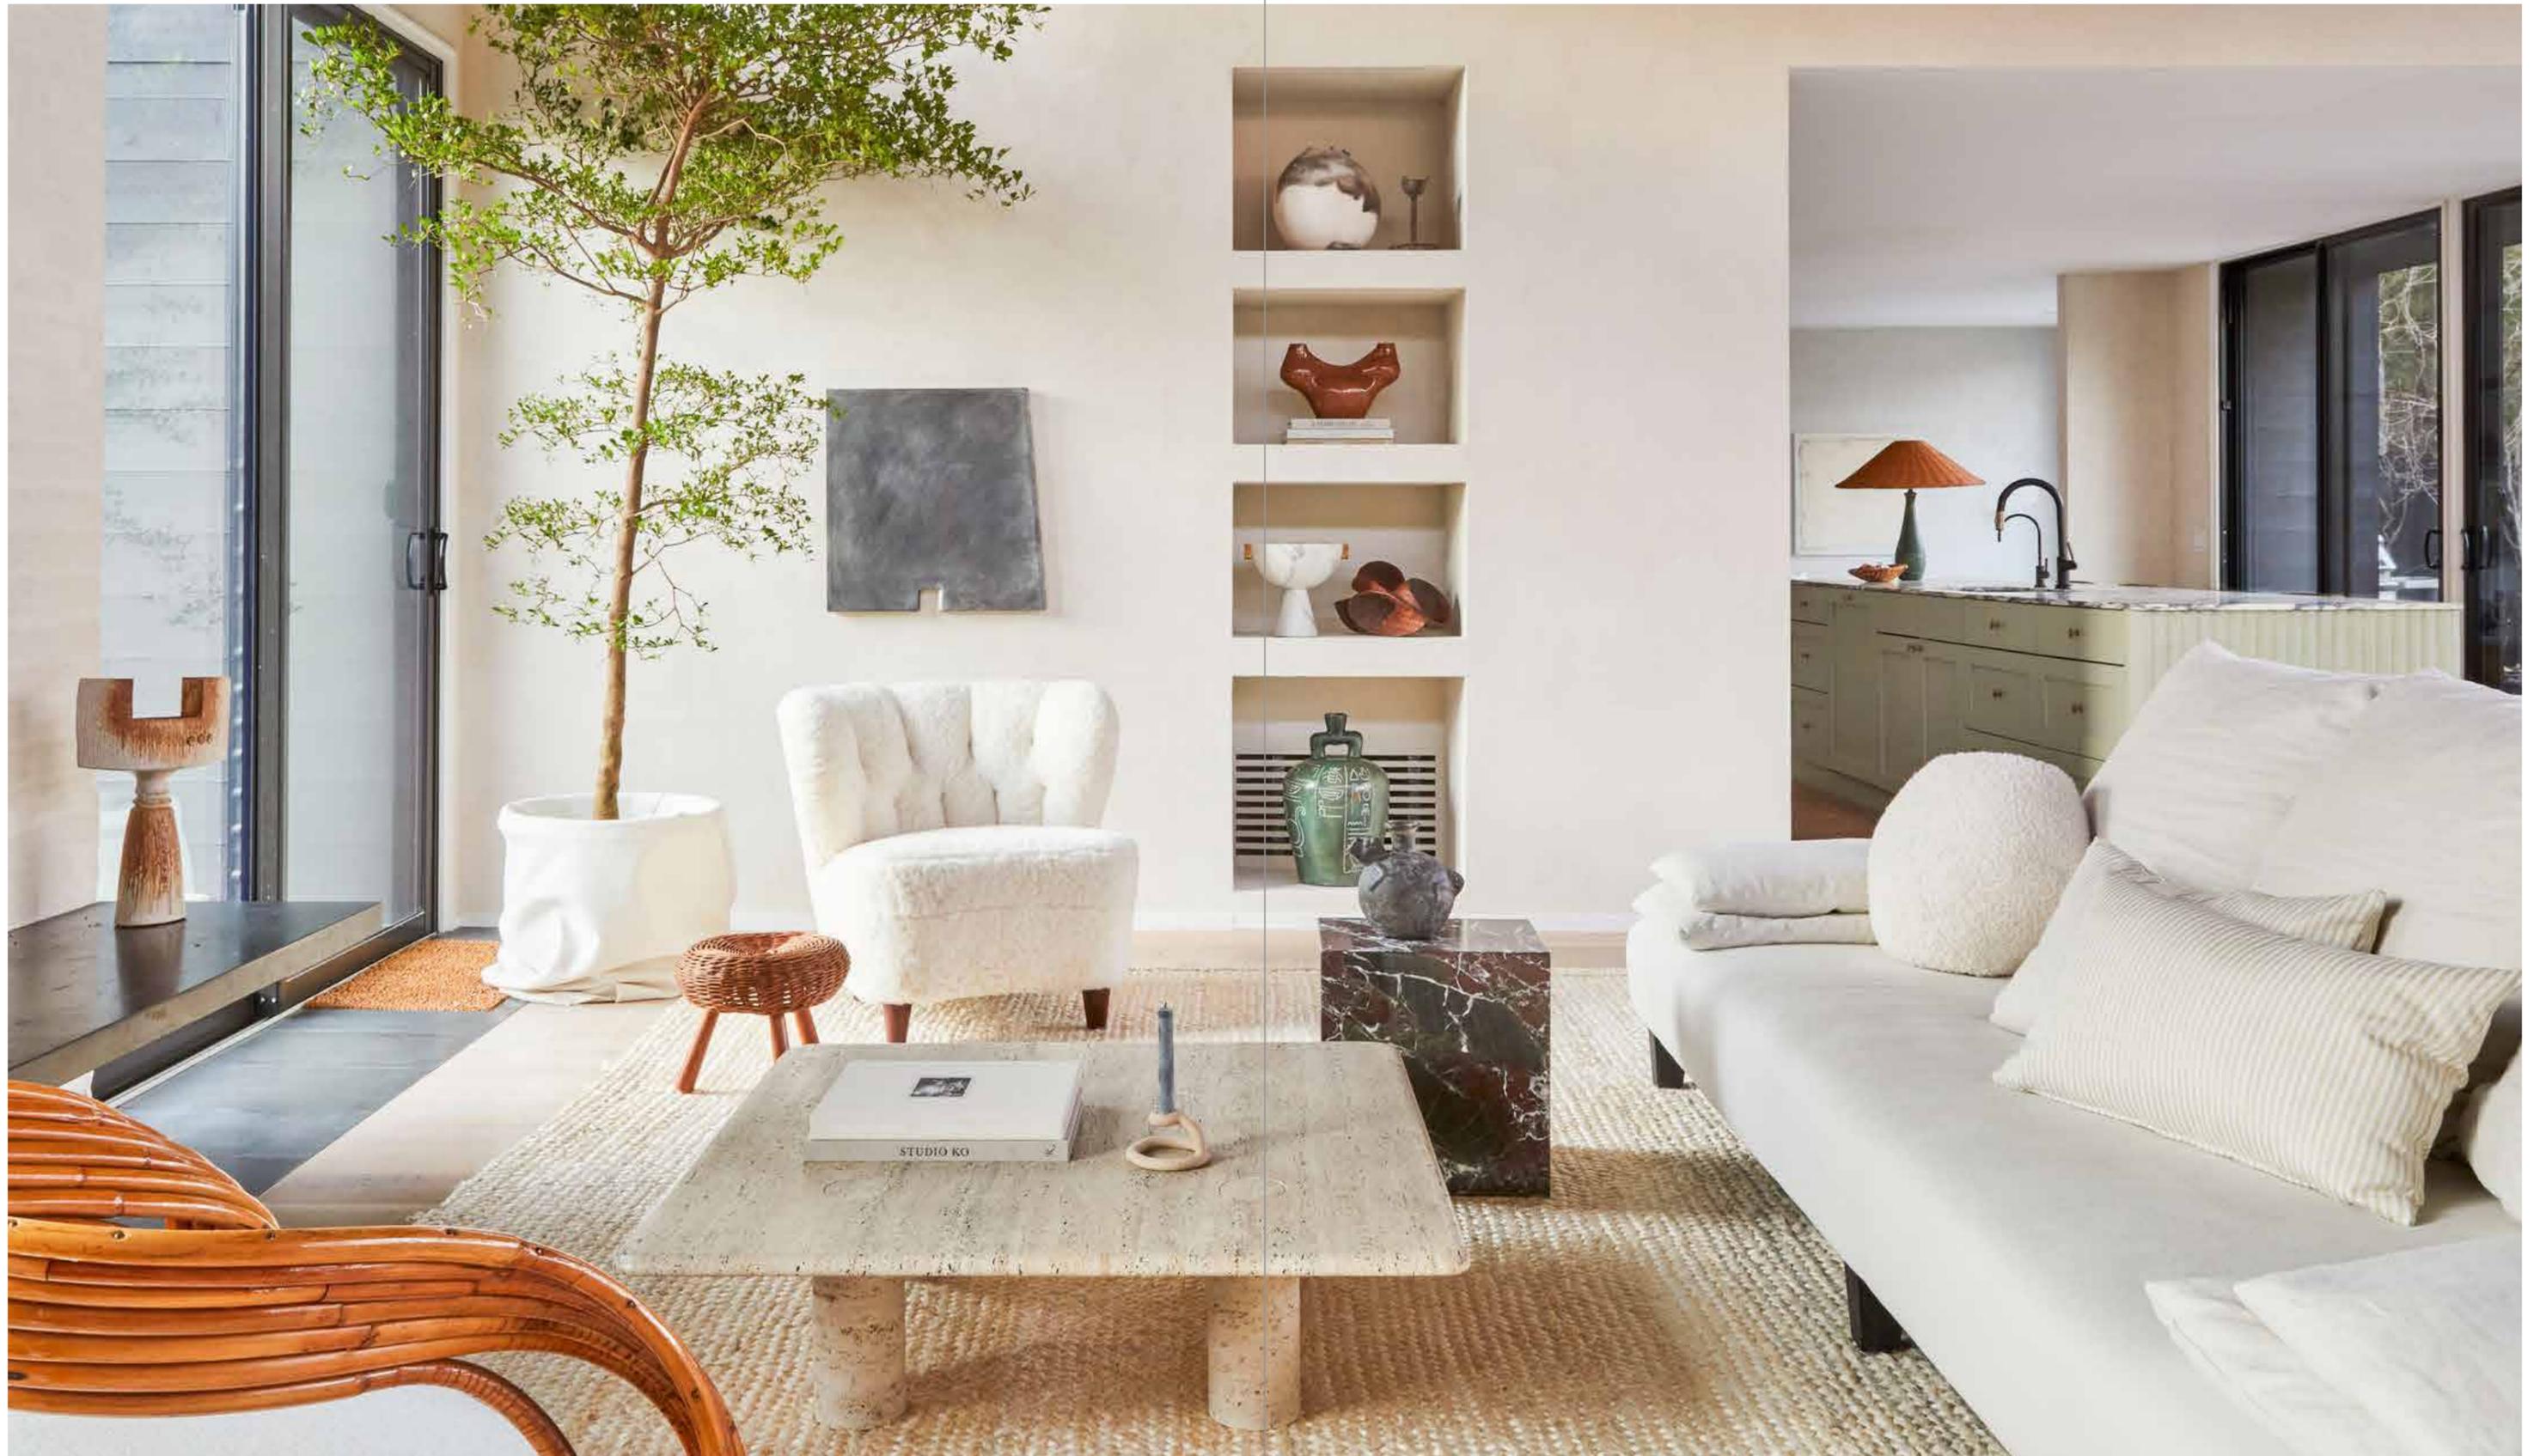

Kylemore's in-house architectural and design team curated the guidelines where three award-winning firms were selected to complete the final designs.

The result is bespoke, yet harmonious groupings of residences. Collaborating firms are: RN Design; Hunt Design Associates; and Guthrie Muskovich Architects.

An ambience of tranquility and harmony is created by the juxtaposition of natural materials such as stone with smooth metal. Simple whites contrast beautifully with natural wood, visually connecting the magnificent surrounding parks with the place you come home to every day.

DESIGNING WITH WELLNESS IN MIND

Natural light pours in from expansive windows and doors, bringing the outdoors within.

Open concept chef's kitchens with large islands promote gatherings with family and friends.
