AMENITY GUIDE

ENDLESS POSSIBILITIES

It is unheard of to find a condominium with 1.5 acres of indoor and outdoor amenities, but 5959 is a building that defies comparison. It takes the expected amenities and makes them extraordinary with sumptuous finishes and designer details. Then there are those amenities that are so unique, they can only be found here.

5959 is the only residential building in the world with a multi-use court. LED lights inlayed into the glass floor project the lines required to play your choice of sports, basketball, volleyball, squash, badminton, or soccer. For a more peaceful experience there's the 2-storey Atrium on the 34th floor, a calming green space with flowing water and an adjacent Chai Room.
